

How to Use Prescribed Fire for Wildlife and Livestock

Tuesday, Jan. 15, 2019

Noble Research Institute Coffey Ranch

16877 State Highway 32

Marietta, OK 73448

Agenda

8 a.m.	Registration
8:30 a.m.	Welcome and Introductions Planning a Burn -Goals and objectives: burning for brush, livestock and wildlife site considerations -Writing a burn plan -Impacts of fire - Laws and liabilities - Firebreaks - Weather parameters -Weather prediction websites -Smoke Management -Burn equipment, labor, and ignition plans - Plant communities, fuel types and management	Staff
Noon	Lunch
12:45 p.m.	Demonstration Burn* -Onsite discussion of equipment -Pre-burn Orientation -Conduct Burn -Post Burn Discussion
3 p.m.	Questions/Adjourn

*Please note these activities are weather permitting. It is recommended for those wanting to participate in the burn workshop to dress appropriately. We recommend you wear outdoor work clothes, which include boots, gloves, cap or other suitable head covering and natural fiber type clothing (no synthetics)